

DOCUMENTS REQUIRED FOR VISA PROCESSING

1. A completed visa application form. (RREACH will send you the official form.)
2. An original and complete copy of your passport or travel document, with a minimum of three (3) months of validity remaining as of November 2023.
3. A proven airline reservation with travel itinerary or electronic ticket. (You do not have to show that you have paid for the ticket, just that you have the itinerary.)
4. A copy of the identification document or residency card of the country where you are domiciled, translated into Spanish and certified by an official translator.
5. Three (3) photographs. (Only applies for physical visits to the embassy or consulate. Online applications must have one photo attached to the email.)
6. Pay the applicable visa fee.
7. RREACH will provide an invitation letter to you, to satisfy the Panamanian visa requirement of (1) a “letter of invitation, which may come from either a Panamanian resident or a private entity.” RREACH’s invitation letter will also satisfy the visa requirements for you to show (2) proof of your economic solvency during your stay, of not less than $500 USD; and (3) that you have a hotel reservation during your stay.
8. RREACH will provide a bank certification letter, to satisfy the Panamanian visa requirement of proof of the economic solvency of the inviter (the one who gives the letter of invitation referenced above).
9. If you submit your application by e-mail, the copies of your passport (#2 above) and your personal identification (#4 above) must be notarized by a notary public.
